

April 10, 2007

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by WBFF-TV,
Baltimore, Maryland, along with the most significant programming treatment for the period of

January 1, 2007 through March 31, 2007

The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority nor significance. The list is by no means exhaustive.

ISSUE: HEALTH

News at Ten Cover Stories:

Broadcast Date: January 9/10:34PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: Bone cancer...and new treatments. A young girl has part of her leg removed and moved to grow to become part of her shoulder...a rare treatment after cancer destroyed her upper arm and shoulder.

Broadcast Date: January 10/10:24Pm
Length: 4:20
Source: Local
Description: Jeff Abell examines childhood obesity and why so many children are involved.

Broadcast Date: January 16/10:34Pm
Length: 3:30
Source: Local
Description: Internet addicts. Joy Lepola examines a new health program....too much time on computers and addiction to the Internet.

Broadcast Date: January 17/10:23PM
Length: 3:50
Source: Local
Description: A look at a brave young girl and her battle to learn to walk again. Kathleen Cairns reports/

Broadcast Date: January 30/10:22PM
Length: 3:30
Source: Local
Description: researchers are warning against getting too many CAT scans. A full body scan exposes the patient to as much radiation as that experienced by a Hiroshima Survivor.

Broadcast Date: January 31/10:24PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Limb lengthening. Craig Demchak follows the medical quest of a 14 year old Mexican boy who comes to the US to have his legs lengthened as to have two legs of the same length.

Broadcast Date: February 6/10:19PM
Length: 4:10
Source: Local
Description: Brain games. Puzzles and games can help slow down the progressive, perhaps prevent, Alzheimer's disease. A look at what the LifeBridge Brain & Spine Institute has developed.

Broadcast Date: February 13/10:19PM
Length: 3:30
Source: Local
Description: Jennifer Gilbert examines the Shangri-la Diet....weight loss by consuming a spoonful of sugar and spoonful of olive oil daily

Broadcast Date: February 14/10:17PM
Length: 3:50
Source: Local
Description: Steve Levine investigates the healthy state of Baltimore City schools. A shocking revelation that nearly ever city school haws been slapped with a health code violation and that it can take months to fix the problem.

Broadcast Date: February 19/4:20
Length: 3:30
Source: Local
Description: IN Maryland, heart attack victims are taken to the nearest hospital which may or may not be a "heart hospital". Then they are transferred to a hospital that specializes in heart health. This wastes valuable time in getting patients the early treatment to reduce long term disability. Jeff Abell discussed with legislators the need to let EMTs take heart attack victims straight to the accredited heart hospital.

Broadcast Date: February 28/10:24PM
Length: 3:45
Source: Local
Description: Karen Parks presents information on the six tests that every woman should have to defend her body...mammograms, pap smears, cholesterol and others.

Broadcast Date: March 9/10:22PM
Length: 3:30
Source: FOX Network
Description: A look at acupuncture as a way to quit smoking.

Broadcast Date: March 16/10:33PM
Length: 3:30
Source: FOX Network
Description: A look at yoga as an infertility treatment and promotion of conception.

Broadcast Date: March 27/10:23PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: What every woman should know about myositis, a debilitating disease that is rare by can be a killer.

Broadcast Date: December 27/10:23PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: Tips to help viewers work out and keep in shape...and have fun doing it!

CRIME/CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Program: America's Most Wanted
Broadcast: Saturdays 9PM
Source: Network
Length: 60 minutes
Description: A weekly program featuring profiles on fugitives and unsolved crimes in which viewers' help is solicited to bring criminals to justice. The program also features missing children alerts to help identify them and reunite them with their families

Program: Maryland's Most Wanted
Broadcast: Saturdays/10:20PM
Source: Local
Length: 1:30
Description: The News at Ten in cooperation with Maryland State Police, area sheriffs' offices, and the local office of the FBI presents a local "most wanted" feature following the Saturday broadcast of "America's Most Wanted". During the news feature, information about unsolved Maryland crimes and wanted fugitives is presented and viewers help is requested to bring criminals to justice.

Program: Fugitive Files
Broadcast: January 27, February 24, March 31/10:22PM
Source: Local
Length: 5 minute feature and follow-up throughout broadcast:
Description: A monthly News at Ten feature in which Baltimore City Police staff a phone bank answering calls investigating leads to fugitives from justice. Five fugitives and their crimes were profiled and viewers with pertinent information called in with local police obtaining information to help bring the fugitives to justice.

News at Ten Cover Stories:

Broadcast Date: February 1/10:17PM
Length: 4:30
Source: Local
Description: Jeff Abell examines Maryland bars that are allowing consumers to gamble illegally in their establishments.

Broadcast Date: February 5/10:18PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: Insurance fraud. Insurance companies are employing undercover detectives and cameras to capture people filing crooked claims.

Broadcast Date: February 15/10:19PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Investigative reporter Joy Lepola examines how convicted criminals are not doing the full length of sentences, are released early, break the law and are again resentenced for their offense.

Broadcast Date: February 21/10:17PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Local drug dealers are stolen state funded cell phones for MTA Mobility Bus drivers and are racking up huge bills at taxpayer expense. Steve Levine investigates.

Broadcast Date: March 1/10:22PM
Length: 4:10
Source: Local
Description: Joy Lepola examines how inmates earn time off of their sentences.

Broadcast Date: March 2/10:19PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Identity auctions. An underground cyber network is not only stealing your identity, but is selling it to the highest bidder.

Broadcast Date: March 8/10:17PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: Roberta Roper has fought for victim's rights since the murder of her daughter 25 years ago. A profile of "Roper's Fight" .

Broadcast Date: March 13/10:21PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Investigative reporter Steve Levine rides the rails to learn how safe commuters are on the light rail systems and if security offices and camera are truly doing the job of keep it rails safe.

Broadcast Date: March 19/10:18PM
Length: 4:20
Source: Local
Description: Maryland maintains a data base of crooked cops convicted of crimes. But does the database work to protect residents of other states when the officers apply for jobs outside their jurisdiction?

Broadcast Date: March 20/10:18PM
Length: 3:50
Source: Local
Description: Second chance for sex offenders. The crime and criminal justice reporting unit examines repeat offenders who are beating the systems because of light sentences.

Broadcast Date: March 21/10:7PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Sex offenders sentencing. An examination of offenders with the most heinous crimes and yet receive light sentences.

Broadcast Date: March 23/10:21PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: With the use of a lie detector, a look at a new way to stop sex offenders from repeating their crimes.

Broadcast Date: March 28/10:16PM
Length: 4:30
Source: Local
Description: Preventing black on black crime. Keith Daniels talks with a black man who has made it his priority to mentor black children to be strong and take care of one another as to reduce black on black crime.

ISSUE: COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

News at Ten Cover Stories:

Broadcast Date: January 22/10:32PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Flight from the suburbs. John Rydel examines a new trend in which suburbians are moving to the new high rises in downtown Baltimore and the impact on Baltimore's local economy.

Broadcast Date: January 25/10:33PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: Private highways. An examination of how some states have contracted private companies and organizations to maintaining the highways. How do toll roads and private maintenance impact the community?

Broadcast Date: February 2/10:23PM
Length: 3:30
Source: Local
Description: Anchor Jeff Barnd surveys what Marylanders really know about their home state as he travels to Antietam, the site of the bloodiest battle in American history.

ISSUE: EDUCATION

News at Ten Cover Stories:

Broadcast Date: February 9/10:18PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: Salisbury Sate University is no longer requiring SATs as a prerequisite of recruiting students and their admission process. John Rydell examines the new practice and impact.

Broadcast Date: February 23/10:23PM
Length: 4:00
Source: Local
Description: The Gerstell Academy is in Carroll County is taking a news approach to education. Jeff Barnd reports.

Broadcast Date February 27/10:19PM
Length: 3:40
Source: Local
Description: Keith Daniels examines what school systems are doing to keep teachers with sex offenses out of the classroom. Recent cases in Howard County make it a priority for families and the community.

ISSUE: SUBSTANCE ABUSE

Program: Straight Talk
Broadcast: January 7/11:30PM
Source: Local
Length: 30 minutes
Description: A conversation with Baltimore City Councilman Keiffer Mitchell discussing drugs and alcohol in the city and its impact on crime, neighbors, youth and families.

Program: Straight Talk
Broadcast: February 4/11:30PM
Source: Local
Length: 30 minutes
Description: Program hosts Mike Gimbel discussed adolescent development with Dr. Jack Vaeth, child psychiatrist, focusing on what parents can expect and how to deal with their teens when confronted with alcohol, drugs, sex, addictions, expectations and behaviors.

Program: Straight Talk
Broadcast: March 4/11:30PM
Source: Local
Length: 30 minutes
Description: Powered by Me, a new education program developed by Sheppard Pratt and St Joseph Medical Center is focused on teaching youth, parents and teachers about steroids, performance enhancing, and supplements and their impact on youth health. Dr. Harry Brandt of the Sheppard Pratt Easting Disorders Center, John Tollman, President and CEO of St Joseph Medical Center discussed the program. Additional insight about school athletes was addressed by Ron Belinko, chair of athletics program Baltimore County Public Schools and Towson University head trainer Terry O'Brien.

ISSUE: FAMILY/YOUTH

News at Ten Cover Stories:

Broadcast: January 18/10:33PM
Source: Local
Length: 4:10
Description: New high school drinking statistics are staggering and more and more kids are falling victim to teen drunk drivers. Karen Parks reports.

Broadcast: January 26/10:27PM
Source: Local
Length: 4:30
Description: Joy Lepola examines adoption of foreign born children by local Maryland families and explores the toll that it may take on children who need more than just a home.

Broadcast: February 12/10:17PM

Source: Local

Length: 4:00

Description: A new investigation reveals that some parents are pushing their kids into the world of prostitution in order to make money to school drugs. Steve Levine investigates

Broadcast: February 22/10:19PM

Source: Local

Length: 4:00

Description: Yvette Cade was burned alive by her husband and lived to share her story of domestic abuse and violence with others. Kathleen Cairns spend a day in the life of Yvette Cade.

Broadcast: February 26/10:19PM

Source: Local

Length: 4:00

Description: Kid Killers. A disturbing trend, the number of kids sitting in Baltimore city jail cells are charged with murder....and the numbers have increased dramatically. Steve Levine investigates.